.ansburgh & Bro.

This New Style Fall Wrapper

This Wrapper, made of best quality Percale, in Navy Blue, Black and Gray, extra full, with Empire front and Watteau back; circular ruffle over shoulders, with fancy braid trimming. large turn-over collar to match. Extra size sleeves with deep cuffs, Full wide skirt with deep hem. All sizes from 34 to 46.

Special Price, $1.48.

Order by Mail if you live out of the

ONE MORE CHANCE!

We have decided to continue the special gale of fast week until n at Saturday night. Great good news for housekeepers

MATTINGS, CARPETS, RUGS, BELOW COST AND ON CREDIT!

made and Inid absolutely free of rge for waste in matching figures, cut and tucked down for a plain Mattings.

45c Mattings-this week... 221cayd. 40c Mattings-this week... 20cayd. 35c Mattings-this week. 17%c a yd. 30c Mattings-this week...15c a yd. -this week...125ca vd.

Carpets!

Very heavy Union Ingrain Carpet, Sold everywhere 271 C Yd, for 40c, a yard. Now.... 272 C Yd, Best quality Double Extra Brussels Carpet. Others ask $1.15 per yard Our Splendid Brussels Carpet-worth and sold for $1 per 600 Yd.

GROGAN'S Mammoth Credit

819-821-823 7th St. N. W.

Between H and I Sts.

UNDERTAKERS

J. WILLIAM LEE, INDERTAKER,
IN Pennsylvania stening portherat.
First class service. Phone 1285. 194-123.

DIED.

KING-At her late residence, No. 625 I street northwest, Mas Virginia F. King, at 12 15 a. m., Monday, August 19, 1895. Remotts will be taken to Savatout, Ga., Tuesday, at 3:30 p. m., for interment. Brooklyn papers please copy.

MARRIED.

On April 27, 1895, in Bultimore, at the parsonare of the Immanuel Baptist Church, by the Rev. Charles A. Fulton, Alfred

FORECASTER DUNN IN TROUBLE

Chief Moore Calls for an Explanation

From the New York "Farmer." of the weather bareau at New York city, has been called upon by Chief Willis Moore, of the Westler Bureau, for an explanation of certain matters that have been printed in the papers of the city wherein he predicts the Numerous reports have been published oughout the country that two months of hot and dry weather may be looked for, and these predictions are repudi-ated by the Weather Bureau. Chief Moore local forecast official in New York, has made this forecart after consultation with me. I wash to say that no such consulta tion has been held and neither Mr. Dunn nor any other official of this bureau is author science, to make any such prediction. Mr. Dunn has to-day been called on for an ex-

The Evening Times is the paper

that everybody buyst

Mrs. Lamer Dunn is semmering at the

Mrs. Jesse V. N. Hayek and daughter

The Misses Allwyn, of South Washington.

Mr Chas. G. Thomse left for Atlantic

Mrs. Senator Stewart has gone for a two weeks' outing among the mountains of Vir-

Miss Annie O'Connor, of I street north

ist, is visiting friends at Gordonsville,

Miss Bertie Reese, of I street, has gone to

Mrs. Emma Henry Young and daughter,

Miss Louisa Robinson is staying at

Miss Jessie W. Cornwell is spending her

Mrs. C. B. Wise and daughter, Miss Clara-

LEAGUERS' MASS-MEETING.

Evening at Washington Grove.

The mass-meeting of Washington District of the Epworth League will occur at 7:45

'clock this evening at Washington Grove,"

Song service, conducted by Mrs. J. R.

Mickle, district fourth vice president, prayer, Rev. C. L. Pate; singing; announcements;

Scripture reading, Rev. Hedding B. Leech, district superintendent Janior Epworth

Rev. W. R. Stricklen, president Baltimore Conference Epworth League, Epworth

League rallying song, "The gathering of

A children's meeting and junior rally will be held in the afternoon at 3 o'clock

Junior Epworth League, Rev. H. B. Leech.

the young people at the evening service, is no attractive speaker. This will be his features—tramping, plenicing, and the like.

A reception committee will meet the trains as they arrive at the Grove to show

the Leaguers and their friends the places

The following last will at d tertament of

Register of Wills Wright yesterday after

A. Fearson. All my clothes, in my right mind, I promise to give to her also my ring

"Clara Parrish, Marie V. Hopkins, Lizzie

S. Collins, Mollie Snyder, Harter Wright.

Judge Cole yesterday afternoon ordered the appearance of the absent defendant

which to put in an appearance, on failure

Too Poor to Bury the Baby.

By direction of Acting Coroner Glaza-brook, the body of a dead colored infant was removed by Policeman Rinek last night from No. 636 K street southwest, to the Licenses to marry have been issued as fol-

George C. Miller, of Crawford county,

Ohio, and Amy L. Robinson, of Van Buren

William Wallace Foster and Jessie Cath-

Abraham W. Howard and Martha A

Allen B. Clarke and Lola S. Mitchell,

Frank McMurran and Emily Riggins

Charles W. Ferguson and Annie Taylor, Nelson Marshall, of Amberst Court House,

Va., and Rosa Lawson, of Caroline county,

William Findley Shugert, of Bellefonte, Pa., and Margaret Mills, of Ithaca, N. Y.

Have you subscribed yet for the Morning, Evening and Sunday Times

William Payne and Mary Elgin expense of the District.

county, Mich

erine Parker.

both of Richmond, Va.

both of Norfolk, Va.

It will be buried to-day at the

and breast pin.

solo, Miss Lillie Stewart; addres vacation with her friends, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Law, at Colonial Beach.

a very pleasant two weeks' stay

Rev. L. B. Wilson presiding

the League:" benediction.

The programme is as follows

Langollen, Mrs. W. S. Pewell's place at Annapolis Junction, Md.

visit in Maryland.

Sixth street northwest.

are at Narragansett Pier and will remain

Hot Springs, and will return about Octofor a fishing trip at Bay Ridge.

until the last week of September.

pictures to be used as illustrations

October.

MISS MANNING'S MARRIAGE

She Will Wed the Queen of Holland's Private Secretary.

Mrs. Cushman P. Davis' Talents as a Musician-Miss Harmon a Belle at White Sulphur Springs.

Miss Mary Elizabeth Manning, daughter of the late Secretary of the Treasury, Daniel Manning, will be married to-morrow in All Saints' Cathedral at Albany to Mr. Jules Cornelius Van der Oudercucien, of The Hague, Holland. The ceremony at the cathedral will be followed by a reception at the residence of Mrs. John A. Delahanty on State street, Albany. The groom, who is the private secretary to the Queen of Holland, willsail for Europe on Saparday.

This announcement of the approaching varriage will be of great interest in Washington, as Miss Manning is well known here, not only from her visits in this city during her father's lifetime, but a few days. on several occasions since.

A recent approprient of an engage ment of interest in this city is that of Va. Miss Katherine Tilfnuy, daughter of Dr. Louis McLane Tiffaux, of Baltimore, to Mr. Gordon Albort, of Boston, The later is president of the Old Colony Trust Companies. No stage has as yet been setor the marriage, but it is likely to be se of the fushionable events of the au-

Corporal Tanuer will leave the city today for a trip to New York, Beston and Maloe. After that he will go to Weir, N. H., to take part in the Grand Army festivities. On September 9 Corporal Tauner will return to Washington to remain overnight, and leave the following day for Louisville to attend the Grand Army receing at that place.

Mr. and Mrs. James Elverson, Jr., are spending a pertion of the reason at Cape May, where they went last week.

The American Ambascador and Mrs. Thomas Bayard were among the guests at the house party given on Saturday by Attorney General Sir Richard Everard Webster, at his country seat, Winterfold Cranleigh, Surray, England. The speaker of the House of Commons was another of Mr. and Mrs. John F. Chambertain and daughters are at the Hot Springs, Va.

Mrs. Carleton Hunt and Mr. Edward Livingston Hum, wife and son of ex-Repre-sentative Hunt, of New Orleans, are in the White Mountains.

Mrs. Kilpatrick, widow of the late Gen. Kilpatrick, is spending the tearen

Count Vinci, of the Italian embassy, has gone to Narragansett Pier to spend the remainder of the senson.

Mrs. George W. Childs, upon her return to Washington, sometime during the autumn, will take possession of her elegant new reridence on K street. Her Philadelphia house she has decided to sell, and it has been closed and barred for cometime past, with arge signs "To Let" placarded on the

A pertrait of the late Secretary Gresham will shortly be placed in the State Department. It is the work of Mr. Frank M. Pebble and is at present on exhibition at the Art Institute in Chicago.

Gen and Mrs. Edgar Allen, of this city. at present at the Intervale in the White Monutains.

Ex-Representative William C Wallace nd family are spending the season in the White Mountains

Lenox society is at present decidedly quiet, even approaching duliness. Fasti-locable attention is mainly directed to golf playing, with the result that the the summer at that resort are skillful golf parties so far and will continue in a quiet way the galeties of such nature as small disner parties until about the middle of September, when the crowd of fashionables from the various other prominent seashere and mountain resorts begin to pour in in the suit for divorce of Madeline Jones against James Jones. The customary and make the Lenox season a really gay forty days were given the husband in

Mr. and Mrs. John F. Waggaman are still at Ocean City, but contemplate an extended Northern trip before returning late in September.

Mrs. Herbert Pattee, who has been spending some time at Buzzard's Bay, will visit the various resorts of the Masschasetts and Maine coasts before returning about the middle of September,

Mr. E. R. Hay, after having several times postponed his trip on account of business ements, left on Satorday, to be absent about three weeks.

Miss Harmon, the daughter of the Attorney General, is one of the most attractive girls at White Sulphur Springs.

Miss Mary Harlow has returned after a month's visit at Harper's Ferry.

Miss Marion Kelly, of Second street northwest, who has been visiting friends on the

Dr. Kerr, of the Emergency Hospital, is with his family at Ocean City.

Miss Nannie W. Thompson, of Capitol Hill, will leave to-day to visit relatives to northern New York.

Mrs. Arthur I). Paige will leave to-day for Sharon Springs, Schoharie county, at 50 cents a month? Fifth Annual All-day Picnic and

Excursion of the "Finest."

HAD ABOUT 3,500 GUESTS

One of the Most Successful and Largely Attended Outings Ever Given by the Blue Coats-Everybody Hugely Enjoyed the Sports Down the River. Committee in Charge friends were affoat on the Potomac yesterday from early morning until a late hour at might The occasion was the lifth annual all-lay pictic and excursion of the police force N. Y. After spending two weeks there she will visit other resorts of northern New of this city to River View, and was one of the most successful and largely attended York before returning, the last week in events of the kind this season and gave the Coppers" an opportunity to sustain their reputation as right royal entertainers.

For the time being, baton, badge, and pistol. were laid aside and the officers devoted themselves exclusively to caring for the Mr. Charles Burnham left on Saturday comfort and pleasure of the hundreds who joined them in the sail on the river and the festivities at River View.

FOUR PARTIES WENT. The excursionists left the city in four parties, the steamer Pentz making three trips, and the Randall one, at 6 p. m.

have gone to visit relatives near Pen Mar. On each trip the steamers were crowded They will also be guests of the Bine Mountain House before returning, early in to the full capacity, the total number of xcursionists being estimated at more than As the proceeds of the excursion are to be applied to the police pension Miss Viola Schuman, of Ratreet northwest, eft on Saturday for a trip through Virginia fund it is not at all surprising that the friends of the "finest" took this oppor-Miss Schaman is quite an expert amateur photographer, and will take a series of tuntity of helping in a worthy cause and at the same time enjoying one of the pleas-ant at outings of the season.

While the party was, in the main, made up of the families and friends of the officers, the officials of the courts, hendquar ters and the District building were also represented in the throng of merry makers. ginia. Senator Stewart is rapidly improv-ing, and topes to be about as usual in

THOSE IN CHARGE. posed of Lieurs, Chas. H. Vernon, Rich. B. Boyle, D. H. Teebles, and the following offirers representing the several police pre-

First-John L Kilmartin, A. B. Hunt; econd-S. E. Herndon, J. B. Corcorni Third-John B O'Brien, M. F. Enthert, Fourth-Geo. A Schrader, C. H. Evans; Firth-W. H. Anderson, John Stewart; Sixth-A. J. Kimmell, J. M. Waish; Sev-Miss Marie, will leave to-day for a short enth-C. H. Bradley, C. M. Berkish; Eighth-E. J. Kennedy, R. D. Watson; Ninth-J.

P. Smith and W. H. Williams. Miss Clam Warner, of Philadelphia, is risking her aunt, Mrs. L. Luchs, No. 714 As there was no special programme of en-terminment arranged when the excursioniats reached River View, they separated in small picture parties and enjoyed themselves to their own fixing. Of the sinusciments provided, dancing, bowling and the roller Miss Henderson and Miss Lida Wattles, of Alexandria, Va., are staying at Mrs. Bowle's home at Annapolis Junction, Md. coaster were the most extensively patron

> The excursionists returned to the city at a late hour on the steamers Pentrand Randall, after spending a most delightful day.

ANTI-SALOON LEAGUE.

Largely Attended Regular Meeting. Changes in Committees.

The E Street Baptist Church society was returned from Atlantic city Saturday after added to the organizations represented in the District Anti-Salson League at the meeting last night, and additional represemiatives were received from the Grace Methodist Church. Rally of Epworthians to Occur This

The churches represented were as follows: Calvary Baptist, Fifth Congregational, Brightwood Methodist, Foundry Methodist, Grace Methodist, Epworth League, Tennallytown Methodist, Garten Memoriai Presbyterian, Guaton Memoriai Presbyterian, and First Congregational C. E.; lodges, Grand Lödge D. C., Independent, Silver Star, and Columbia; also the Capitol W. C. T. U., the Central Union Mission and the District C. E. Union. Vice President James L. Ewin presided, and Miss

May Leets acted as secretary. The report of the committee on co-operachurches and twenty-six temperance so cirties, with three other organizations en gaged in the league work and sending delegates to its meetings. Mr. Ewin, calling Dr. Swartwout, third vice president, to committee showing the condition of its work. mittee on literature, reported changes in first appearance at a meeting in this field in place of the late Carleton Smell, to spend the day at the Grove, the early part of the day to be devoted to secial feelingly referred to, and W. H. H. Warman added to the membership. He also outlined the plans of the committee for fature

Mr.J. S. Blackford, acting chairm the committee on mass meetings, told of the meeting at Brightwood Sunday, and read in full the report of it as it appeared

The communication with contribution from the E Street Eaptist Caurch gave the names of delegates to the league as follows. Clara Parrish, written upon a torn leaf of a memorandum book, was submitted to P. L. Webb, A. J. Walker, E. Bierer, Charles S. Muir, and A. V. Graves, all from the Christian Endeavor Society. The new "West Washington, Nov. 12, 1886.
"I, Clara Parrish, do bereby give all representatives from Grace Church Epworth League were Messrs, George S. Gibson and personal property and all interest in my father's estate, Clara Parish, to Laura

After the business meeting papers were Swartwoot. The first was upon the recent. Association and the National Liquot Deal-Commissioner Roosevelt in New York.

ANACOSTIA NEWS.

An attempt was made last night to burgiarize the home of Mr. J. W. Crawford, on Jackson street near Pierce. The burof which the case will be proceeded with giar had tried to effect an entrance through t downstairs window, and failing in this climbed upon a rear roof. Charles Craw ford heard the noise and frightened the man

The funeral of Mrs. Odessa Allen tool place yesterday from the Anacostia Baptist Church. It was largely attended.

There was some excitement on Pierce street last evening when a crowd of boys accompanied private watchman William Webster and made a raid on a stable beonging to Mr. W. Marden King. Complaint had been made that a colored boy had been sleeping there of nights. The stable was entered and a little negro aroused from his slumbers on the hay. He fought and scratched his captors, but was taken to the Anacostia station and charged with va

Devilled Crab Man in Trouble. Jim Brown, an itinerant lunch a erab vendor, was arrested last night by Poiccemen Auguste and Hughes and locked up at No. 4. Brown is wanted by Detective Weedon on the serious charge of larceny from the person. It is charged that while Charles Joeson was asleep on the lower deck of one of the river steamboats Brown picked hispocket and secured $20. The case will be heard in Judge Mills' court this

The Evening Times is the paper that everybody buyst

FALLS CHURCH ITEMS.

Mr. Preston McWhorter, of Washington, is visiting his wife, who is stopping with her sister, Mrs. S. R. Newion.

Mr. G. W. Hawxhurst, town clerk, has just completed the assessment of property in the corporation, and the total value of the same, both real and personal, amounts to $377,936, an increase over last year's sessment of $18.742

The Y. P. S. C. E. sociable, which was ostponed last week, was held on the beauti ful lawn of Mr. Eastman on Friday night. A large number were present, the grounds were brilliantly illumined and an excellent ogramme was rendered, consisting of a banjo solo by Miss Theresa Harbaugh, of Washington; fastrumental duet, Misses Poole and Selby; vocal solo, Will Eastman; recitation, Miss Hodgkin; banjo solo, Wirt Kingsley; piano solo, Mrs. M. M. Erwin; instrumental music, Frank Eastman and solo," by Miss Proudfit. After the Washington's "Finest" and their host of programme refreshments were served, and all present spent a delightful evening The regular monthly meeting of the exec > Fire Insurance Company met at the Engle House Saturday morning and favorably acted on over$40,000 worth of applications for insurance. Mr. Victor Terrett, who has been spend ntive committee of the Falls Church Mutual ng two weeks in the Blue Ridge Mountains has returned. Ernest Van Horn is visiting relatives in Bloomfield, Londonn county. He will be gone a week or ten days. George T. Mankin went to Harper's Ferry on Saturday for a few days.

Mr. Charles A. Stewart and family have one to Suickersville, in the Blue Ridge Mountains, for a two weeks' outing Mrs. Reed, of Washington, is the guest of Mrs. E. D. Berry.

Miss Carrie Downs, Miss Carrie Barker, and Mrs. Ida Sanford, are the guests of Mrs. J. M. Newlon. Miss Ella Ford, of Eckington, who has been spending some time with her friends here, has returned to her home. Miss Sue Riddle gave a most delightful masheale at her charming home on Wash ngton street, Saturday night. Miss Clara Ascherfield entertained the guests with estromental, and Mr. Ernest Daniels with vocal music. Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Nowlan, and their daughter, Maude, have returned from a pleasant trip to Virginia Beach.

Mrs. O'Brien, of Baltimore, is visiting ier sister, Mrs. D. L. Rathburn. Mr. G. A. L. Merrifield, Miss Edith and Mr. Everett Merrifield, and Miss Faunie

Moore, have returned from Boston. Admiral A. W. Weaver, of Washington D. C., has purchased the farm of Dr. P. Homan, at Falls Church, containing fifty-seven acres, for $3.525. The admiral contemplates musting extensive improvemettis, and will occupy the place as a summer residence.

KENSINGTON NEWS.

Muss May Edmunds, of Washington, is the guest of Mrs. H. L. McQueen. Mr. Thomas R. Martin left Saturday to join Mcs. Martin and children at Saratoga, Mesers, H. L. McQueen and John B. Mcrday by the death of their father, Mr. James McQueen.

Miss Stella Perry is the guest of friends

Miss May Clark, of Otterbourne, is makng a ten days' visit to Colonial Beach. Miss Emma Harr has returned to her home in Washington, from a visit of three weeks to her cousins, Misses Manie and Nellie Harr. Mrs. Harry Hardester, of Washington, is spending a week at the home of Mr. E. H. Thomas. Her son, Mr. Harry Hardester, spent Sunday with her.

Mr. Louis W. Maxson, who has held the archery championship for the past six years, left Monday to attend the archery tournament for 1895, to be held in Ohio. Miss Bessie Perry has returned from a risit to Miss Lutie Chiswell, of Dickerson $15,000. Mrs. Saffold, who has been visiting Mrs.

J. Wilson Townsend, has returned to her home in Washington, Mr. J. H. Davidson, jr., of Washington, is the guest of his sister, Mrs. E. J. Hardisty.

timore. Mr Brainard H Warner, Ir., left Sunday to join his father at Doubling Gap, Pa.

ALEXANDRIA HAPPENINGS.

The Alexandria city school beard had a Hall last night, and selected all the old teachers. It was determined to open the schools in the first week of September The horse attached to the heavy delivery eagon of H. Kirk & Co., wholesale grocers, ecame regimened while standing on Reed's wharf vesterday afternoon, and ran away Several persons standing on the wharf had a very mirrow escape from being run over. the wagon was somewhat damaged.

The colored Baptists of Alexandria will on Sunday next have a big camp-meeting at Gum Springs, in Fairfax county, near and Mount Vernon Railway is very nearly empicted between Arlington and Roslyn, and the line from Arington to Waterico is

The city committee on public property have ecided to make extensive improvements in the city jail. The work will be begon at once.

Mr A. Broughborough has been appointed storekeeper for Sisson's distillery in Fairfax county, near Fairfax Court House R. E. Lee Camp of Confederate Veterans will lleave here this morning to attend the Confederate reunion at Purcellville, Lou-doun county, to-day. About forty of the nemmbers of the camp will go.

HERNDON GOSSIP.

crowds. There were about 2,000 persons Weller, of Sterling, preached an eloquent ermon. One incident marred the after-noon's pleasure, when Mr. Palmer was attacked, without provocation, by a man who which had to be sewed up by a physician.

Mrs. J. D. Winchell, of Washington, and Miss Bessie Winchell, who have been visiting .Mrs. B. A. Mankin, returned home Monday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Van Vleck are now stopping with Dr. B. B. Detwiler, in Elden street. Mrs. Louis Faber, of Washington, is visit-Mr. Marry Schooley, a teacher in the Indian chool at Junction City, Col., who has been Schooley, has returned to his field of lubor Cruel Mother to Be Arrested. A warrant will be sworn out to-day for the arrest of Maggie Jones, the South Washington colored woman who bled up her eleven-year-old daughter in the sun and whipped her, as described exclusively in The Morning Times yesterday. Humane Officer Wilson investigated the matter and found the facts to be substantially as

At the

Bon Marche.

Silver-plated 'Trilby' Lockets

WITH ANY INITIAL.

These are exquisitely made and finished "Trilby" Lockets-in white metal, heavily silverplated. In appearance there is no difference between them and solid on this Locket without additional

For sale To-day.

Bon Marche,

BI4 AND HIS SEVENTH STREET N. W. IN THE HANDS OF A RECEIVER

Insurance Company in Which Prominent Men Are Interested.

The Farmers and Mechanics' Fice Insurance Company, of Alexandria county, Va., has gone into the hands of a re-

For some months rumors have been circulated that the concern was not in the soundest financial condition, and within the past six months Judge Norton, of the corporation court, has enthe company, aggregating in all about $15,000

None of these judgments was paid, and as the attorneys for the parties did not see any prospect of getting the money for their clients, they in a joint bill peti-tioned Judge Charles E. Nicol, of the circuit court of Alexandria city, to apissers for the benefit of the creditors.

cation in chambers, at Manassas, entered a decree appointing Mr. Eugene B. Tay-lor, of Alexandria, receiver of the company. Mr. Taylor, on receiving notice of his appointment, immediately went to the office of the company and took pos-session. The keys of the office were turned over to him by the clerk in charge, but a thorough search of the place failed to discover the books and accounts of the concern, they having evidently been removed to some other place in expectation of some such legal step being taken by the creditors.

Unless a further search reveals some thing of value the creditors will have office furniture valued at a few hundred dars to satisfy claims amounting to

The Farmers and Mechanics' Company was organized about four years ago and has done quite au extensive business all over the United States and its last financial statement put its assets at $164,743.03. while a line at the top of the statemen said "This company has not one dollar of indebtedness." This was sent out when business was to be solicited.

are men prominent in politics and busident is Gen. L. G. Estes, of this city; its retary Alexander Garden, who cla Alexandria as his hom

The following are the stockholders given in a pamphlet published last year: Geo. Charles F. Manderson, U. S. Senator Omahu, Neb ; Charles C. Bedlow, superintend ent Western Union Telegraph Co., Portland, Me.; L. W. Estes, Washinton, D. C.; Hon. Lowis McKenzie, ex-member of Congress U. S. Senutor, Hartford, Coun.; Col. M. D. Birge, real estate, Chicago, III.; Marlin P. Hatch, 145 Broadway, New York; P. B. Anderson, 1010 Pennsylvania avenue, Washington, D. C.; Alexander Garden, Alexandria, Va., and others. Geo. Estes, with Hiram O. Claught his attorney, went to Manassas Festerior to try and have the receivership dismessed. There are still write a number of saits corporation court.

MORA CLAIM SIDE-ISSUES.

Injunction Sult of James Dexter Against Joseph Germiller. A suit for injunction growing out of the famous Mora Claim, now pending in the Department of War, was filed yesterday by James E. Dexter against Joseph P. Ger-In the opening paragraph in his bill in equity the petitioner aumounces that Mr. Nathaniei Paige was, prior to May 18, 1892. attorney for Antonio Maximo Mora, who is ion dollars from the Spanish government for injuries received to himself and his property at the hands of Spanish soldiers in Cuba. It was understood that Paige is to receive 40 percent, of the amount to be recovered from Dexter for a consideration received an assignment of a portion of the lawyer's prospective interest in the claims expected to be paid. Dexter states that he transferred two thousand dollars' worth of his own prospective interest to the defendant to this suit for $400. A promissory note for the amount, payable in three months, was given, and on default of its payment, Dexter claimed, Germiller agreed to re-transfer his interest in fee to the peritioner.

Though the proceedings described above claimed, no payment of the $400, or any part of it has been made. Deater has, therefore, called upon the court to enjoin Mr. Germiller from transferring the interest he now holds to the claim, and asks that the transfer already made to him be vacated.

Hart While Chopping Wood. Thomas Ferrell, a small boy, seeding on Brightwood road, had two figgers of his right hand severed while chopping wood in the rear yard of his house inst evening. He was treated at Freedman's

The Evening Times is the paper that everybody buyst

WHAT'S ONE MAN'S LOSS

Is another man's gain. That is so in every business transaction of life, and the successful man is the one who takes advantage of the opportunities for gain that include his wants.

This purchase of a part

Dimick &Co.'s

Stock of

CARPETS

enables us to give you the greatest chance for gain of the year, and right at the time when you are beginning to think of new carpets for the fall. We save you from $5.00 to $25.00 a room, and store them free of charge until wanted. 65c. Ingrain Carpets at 421/2. 75c. and goc. Tapestry Carpets at 48c. $1 and $1.25 Body Brussels at 85c. Moquette Carpets, 75c. Axminster Carpets 85c.

$1.25 Wilton Velvets. high pile, 75c. Greatest values ever

$2.25 Royal Wilton

Carpets $1.25. The patterns and qualities of all of these are limited, so the sooner you come the better selection you will have. H. Hoeke.

Cor.Pa. Ave. and 8th St.

Carpets, Furniture, and Drapery,

Hot weather Provisions

Are what we are doing a big business in now. Prices right, too.

Emrich Beef Co.

EDUCATIONAL. EDUCATION FOR REAL LIFE FOR SONS AND DAUGHTERS.

The Spencerian Business College, onal Bank of the Republic Building, cor. 7th and Daw. Day and night. SPENCERIAN In the National Capital and throughout the country, is a household word, associated with thorough business training and a

The thirty-first scholastic year of this pular institution begins Monday, Septimber 2, 1895. Five departments, vis. tember 2, 1895. Free departments, viz., Practical besidess, including complete bookkeeping course, English, rapid cal-ce-aritons, rapid writing, moral and social catture, Debarte system of expression, civies, political economy and commercial line. Practical English, with initiatory bookkeeping, Shorthand and Typewriting, including English, Spensorian Rapid Writ-ing, Mechanical and Agricultural brawing. di corps of thoroughly trained ceachers, Location central.

Spacious, brilliantly lighted, hardsome halls and class-rooms. Service of gradu-ates always to demand. Terms moderate, but no competition with cheap schools. The leading business men of Wushington were trained in this college, and send their sons and daughters and candidates for employment here for training.

This college received from the World's Columbian commission, a diploma for "Excellence of Stindents" Work" in all of the above departments. the above departments. Office open every business day and write or call for new annual announce-MRS. SARA A. SPENCER. Principal and Proprietor. PRAINING SCHOOL - Ars. Hallmann's Normal Training School for Kindergariners and Primary Teachers, form-erly at La Forte, Ind., has been transferred to Washington. Mrs. Hallmann will re-ceive applications at her residence, 1404.

Bacon st. nw., between 10 and 11 o'cleck

Explosion of Paint. istroes conflagration at 4:45 o-clock yesterday afternoon in the new house at the corner of Thirteenth street and Whitney avenue northwest. A painter who was working in the building stepped upon the match. It ignited and the floring bend flew into a large can of point, causing an explosion. The shavings and other comestibles on the floor were in a lively biase, when eternical engine No. 2 arrived and went into service, quickly extinguishing the fire. The structure, which is owned by Mr. R. D. Mitchell, was damaged to the extent of $100. No manance,

William Tucker's Will Filed for Pro

Inter. The late William E. Tocker's will, dated January 20, 1890, was filed for robate yesterday afternoon. Sucamonh P. Tucker is named as sole legatee and ex-